The Pacific Regional Dressage Championships 2022 is an Equestrian Canada Gold / Bronze sanctioned Competition # 220041 and is governed by the Rules and Regulations of Equestrian Canada, #201 -11 Hines Road, Kanata, ON K2K 2X1 EC (A602)

Every class offered herein is covered by the rules and specifications of Equestrian Canada, the national equestrian federation for Canada, and judged in accordance with the current EC Dressage Rule Book, Section E. (Art A602.2) Knowledge of the EC rules is the responsibility of the competitor. Please direct any questions regarding rules to the show stewards on the grounds at the competition. (Art. A801) Every entry at an EC-sanctioned competition shall constitute an agreement by the person responsible, that includes the horse owner, lessee, trainer, manager, agent, coach, driver or rider, and the horse, shall be subject to the Equestrian Canada (EC) rules and regulations, and any additional rules specified by the competition herein the Official Prize List. It is the responsibility of all individuals participating in any capacity in EC-sanctioned competitions to be knowledgeable regarding the EC constitution and Dressage Rules for this Regional Championship competition. Do not participate in this EC sanctioned competition in any capacity, if you do not consent to be bound by the constitution and rules of EC and any additional rules imposed by the competition. (A602.7)

Equestrian Canada – Statement of Principle

Equestrian Canada supports adherence to the humane treatment of horses in all competitions under EC jurisdiction. Equestrian Canada is committed to:

Upholding the welfare of horses, regardless of value, as a primary consideration in all activities;

Requiring that horses be treated with kindness, respect and the compassion that they deserve and that they never be subjected to mistreatment;

Ensuring that owners, trainers, exhibitors and the agents use responsible care in the handling, treatment and transportation of their horses as well as horses placed in their care for any purpose;

Providing for the continuous well-being of horses by encouraging routine inspection and consultation with health care professionals and competition officials to achieve the highest possible standards of nutrition, health, comfort, sanitation and safety as a matter of standard operation procedure;

Continuing to support scientific studies on equine health and welfare;

Increasing education in training and horsemanship practices;

Requiring owners, trainers and exhibitors to know and follow their sanctioning organization's rules and to work within the industry regulations in all equestrian competitions; and

Reviewing, revising and developing competition rules and regulations that protect the welfare of horses.

The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a reasonable person, informed and experienced in generally accepted equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be neither cruel, abusive, nor inhumane.

General Rules

Every class offered herein is governed by the rules and specifications of the current Equestrian Canada Rule Books Section E Dressage, and Section A General Regulations. Rule Books may be downloaded from www.equestrian.ca

All horses attending Equestrian Canada sanctioned competitions must have met the requirements of Equestrian Canada Rules, Section A, General Regulations, Article A519, Vaccinations. See Rules of Equestrian Canada, Section A, General Regulations, Article A519, Vaccinations. (A602)

All riders and competitors are required to wear proper fitting, approved headgear protection, with the safety harness correctly secured, always while mounted on the competition grounds. Approved headgear that meets the ASTM (American Society for Testing Materials) safety standard and displays the SEI (Safety Equipment Institute) seal or the British Safety Standard (BSI) seal of approval.

Any horse entered in any class at the competition may be selected for equine medication control testing while at the event location. "Any horse entered in any class at a competition may, while on the competition grounds be selected for equine medication control testing. (A1008)

Neither Thunderbird Show Park nor any member of the organizing committee will be held responsible in any way for damage, injury or loss to persons, horses or property of spectators, owners, trainers, riders, or grooms. Thunderbird Show Park and or Pacific Regional Dressage Championship organizing committee, reserve the right to limit the number of entries, refuse any entry for any reason, to split, cancel, combine, and or adjust any class or awards presentation in accordance with the rules stated herein the competition Prize List. The organizing committee reserves the right to govern all conditions of the classes offered at the competition, and to make decisions on matters not specified in Equestrian Canada rule books, in consultation with the Official Stewards.

The maximum number of dressage tests per horse, per day is four tests, regardless of the number of competition levels, categories, and or horse / rider combinations entered in the competition. Any horse/ rider combination may compete in two consecutive dressage levels at the same competition.

Competition numbers assigned by the show office must always be worn by the horse or rider/ handler when horse is outside of the stall. Failure to display the number may result in a warning, and multiple offenses may result in disqualification. Please do not compete with any other type of number on horse other than the number provided by show office tied on the back or pinned to the saddle pad.

Payment is required by the Entry Closing date in the form of credit card authorization details completed on entry form, or cheque, received on or before closing date of Wednesday, September 15, 2022. All current EC Dressage Section E and or General rules of the Prize list herein apply to the Bronze Dressage Division. A current EC Bronze Sport license and HCBC memberships are required. Horse ID registration is not required. Competitors with a current Gold Sport license may compete in the bronze division classes, however, may not cross enter in both Gold and Bronze divisions at the Pacific Regional Dressage Championships. Junior and Amateur status must be listed on Equestrian Canada Sport Licenses.

Championship Criteria – Bronze Division

Training Level and First Level Youth and Adult Amateur competitors in this division must compete in the respective Dressage Seat Equitation classes to be eligible for Bronze Division Championship Awards. Riders in Equitation Classes are judged on their equestrian skills, rider position, influence and effectiveness and shown in a group class. All competitors must show the walk, trot, and canter in both directions. The horse’s quality and gaits are not an influence in the judge’s evaluation of equitation skills of the riders. Individual test movements may be called for at the judge’s discretion and performed one rider at a time by all competitors in the class. No more than 5 horses are to canter at the same time in the class. The final percentage scores of the equitation class will be combined with the final percentage scores achieved in the dressage Test 2 “C” and Test 3 “C” classes will determine the Bronze Division Championship and Reserve Championship at each technical level and rider category. Competitors must compete in all 3 division classes achieving a minimum combined score of 60.00%, to be eligible for Bronze Division Championship awards.

Gold and Bronze Division Entry Agreement
(One horse/rider per entry form)

"I hereby certify that every horse, rider and/or driver is eligible as entered and agree for myself and my representatives to be bound by the Constitution and rules of Equestrian Canada at this competition. It is hereby recognized that all equestrian sports involve inherent risk and that no helmet or protective equipment can protect against all foreseeable injury. I hereby accept this risk and hold harmless EC, the competition, their officials, organizers, agents, employees, and their representatives. The person responsible (PR) agrees to the release of any information on the entry form to EC." (A802.4)

I, the exhibitor/competitor do hereby acknowledge having read a copy of your official prize list and do hereby certify that all animals listed on the entry form on the reverse competition, are strictly in accordance with the rules and regulations in the Equestrian Canada Rule Book. I hereby certify that every horse and rider is eligible as entered and agree for myself and my representatives to be bound by the Constitution and Rules of Equestrian Canada at this competition.

It is hereby recognized that all equestrian sports involve inherent risk and that no helmet or protective equipment can protect against all foreseeable injury. I further acknowledge the risks in riding and working around horses and that these risks can include bodily injury to both horse and rider resulting from normal use, competition, and schooling.

In consideration of being allowed to participate in this event, I hereby assume all risks and release and absolve the Organizing Committee of Thunderbird Show Park, Horse, employees and the owners of the land upon which the competition is held of all responsibilities, liabilities or claims of any nature and kind which I may have arising from participation in the event. I hereby declare that in making this entry that I have read and fully understand and agree to the terms and conditions stated herein and that it is binding upon my executors, heirs, and assigns.
